PZ3 Live Reschedules Inaugural Event To April 25-27, 2025

March 6, 2024, Las Vegas, Nevada, USA. - In response to the expressed preferences of future attendees, vendors, sponsors, and speakers, PZ3 Live announces the rescheduling of its inaugural event. Originally slated for 2024, the event will now take place on April 25-27, 2025, at the renowned The Expo at World Market Center in Las Vegas, Nevada, USA.

The decision to adjust the dates stems from a commitment to providing enhanced notice and scheduling flexibility for all stakeholders involved. Notably, this change will allow continued alignment with existing registrations, pricing structures, and agreements, with no planned price increases.

PZ3 Live, an emerging leader in animal health and technology events, has garnered robust support from leading companies, vendors, sponsors, and distinguished speakers. The event boasts a lineup of innovative presenters and has seen overwhelming interest from potential attendees, keynote presenters, and vendors alike. The rescheduled date ensures ample time for budget and scheduling adjustments, addressing the community's expressed need for extended planning.

At the helm of PZ3 Live is Manolita Moore, a seasoned veteran in veterinary medicine conventions. With decades of experience overseeing WVC and NAVC events, Ms. Moore brings a wealth of expertise with a track record of award-winning leadership in pioneering technological solutions within the veterinary industry.

PZ3 Live is excited to leverage this rescheduled timeline to maximize opportunities for brand promotion and event awareness. From a technology-focused format, forward-thinking educational tracks and presenters, emerging start-up companies, technology & innovation awards program, combined with the amenities that Las Vegas and the venue at The Expo at World Market Center offer, the event is poised to deliver an unparalleled experience to all attendees.
